

European research platform for inclusive community planning & service development for people with disabilities (EURECO)

2019 Research Forum

Take measure:

Social impact measurement frameworks for disability services in Europe

25-26 March 2019, Representation of the State of Northrhine-Westphalia (NRW) to the European Union

Rue Montoyer 47, 1000 Brussels (Map)

DAY 1: 25 March 2019
12.30–13.00	Arrival of participants, refreshments
13:00 –13:15	Welcome address: Mr. Klaus Müller, EU- Representation of Northrhine-Westphalia Mr. James Crowe, President of EASPD Prof. Dr. Johannes Schaedler, ZPE, University of Siegen Ms Asel Kadyrbaeva (Overview agenda and practicalities)
13:15 – 13.45	Setting the Scene: Efficiency or appropriateness? - New frameworks for impact measurement in person-centered disability services - Prof. Dr. Johannes Schaedler, ZPE, University of Siegen Q&A
13.45 – 15.00	National discourses and state of play in different European countries: Practices of individual planning of disability services and measurement of their impact Speakers to be confirmed - Open mic
15.00 – 15.30	Coffee Break

15.30 – 16.50	Case studies: Practices of individual planning of disability services and measurement of their impact Speakers are to present their case studies (including an overview of issues confronted) (Moderator: Asel Kadyrbaeva) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Introduction by Moderator - Case 1: Early intervention (20 min) - Case 2: Inclusive Education (20 min) - Case 3: Inclusive living (20 min) - Case 4: Employment (20 min)
16.50 - 17.00	Wrap-up and Day 1 conclusions
19.00 Networking dinner
DAY 2: 26 March 2019
9.00 – 9.15	Recap from Day 1
9.15 – 11.00	Panel: Challenges and alternatives to social impact outcomes measurement Moderator: Luk Zelderloo (5 min. presentation to clarify the main concepts and their definitions, define the scope & objectives of the discussion, introducing speakers, 3 rounds of questions for panelists) Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fulfilling rights as outcomes for individuals (DPO) - Complying with professional standards in service provider practices (EASPD member) - Securing social rights, quality of services and appropriate funding (Funding authorities (EC, ERRIN)) - Scientific methods & discourses (open mic from the floor) Q&A with the audience How to best demonstrate the value/quality/impact/outcome of disability services? Recommendations: how can participants contribute?
11.00 – 11.30	Coffee break
11.30 – 13.00	Open microphone <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Participants are invited to introduce themselves, share their projects, pitch their research ideas, search for collaborators, make announcements
13.00 – 13.15	Wrap-up & conclusions: Johannes Schädler and Asel Kadyrbaeva
13.15 – 14.00	Light Lunch

Contact information: asel.kadyrbaeva@easpd.eu